Case No.:

CIVIL ACTION

COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

COLLECTIVE ACTION
PURSUANT TO 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiff, YE JI YUN (“Yun”), by and through her attorneys, Kim, Cho & Lim, LLC, complaining of Defendants, SEOUL GALBI, INC. d/b/a SEOUL GALBI RESTAURANT (“Restaurant” or “Seoul Galbi”); BOBBY HWANG (“Hwang”); and JOHN DOES 1-10 (said names being fictitious) (collectively, “Defendants”), avers as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff Yun – a non-exempt tipped employee – initiates this action to recover unpaid wages and unpaid overtime wages while in the employ of Defendants, Restaurant, Hwang, and John Does 1-10, pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”) as well as the New Jersey Wage Payment Law, N.J.S.A. § 34:11-4.1 et seq., and the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law, N.J.S.A. § 34:11-56a et seq. (“NJLL”).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) (FLSA), 28 U.S.C. §1531 (interstate commerce), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question). Supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

3. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants operate their business in this district, and Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Yun is an individual residing in Palisades Park, New Jersey and was employed by Defendants as a waitress from about February 1, 2016 to April 24, 2017 at the restaurant located at 123 Paramus Road, Paramus, New Jersey 07652.

5. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Yun and other similarly situated employees were subjected to the same pattern and practices of Defendants' illegal employment policies.

6. Plaintiff Yun seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

7. Defendant Seoul Galbi is a business incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey, and operates the restaurant located at 123 Paramus Road, Paramus, New Jersey, 07652.

8. To serve meals, Defendant Seoul Galbi regularly engages in interstate commerce by procuring ingredients which were produced outside the State of New Jersey.

9. Upon information and belief, Defendant Seoul Galbi had a gross volume of sales of $500,000.00 or more (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated) for the year 2016 and the year 2017.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant Hwang is an individual who is an owner, officer, and/or agent of Defendant Seoul Galbi, and possesses operational control over, and an ownership interest in, Defendant Seoul Galbi.

11. Defendant Hwang also had the power to hire and fire, determine the wages and compensation paid to, and the working schedules and working conditions of, the employees of Defendant Seoul Galbi, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff Yun.

12. Defendants, John Does 1-10, are fictitious names for individuals who are owners, officers, and/or agents of Defendant Seoul Galbi, who also possess operational control over, and an ownership interest in Defendant Seoul Galbi.

13. Defendants, John Does 1-10, also had the power to hire and fire, determine wages and compensation paid to, and the working schedules and working conditions of, the employees of Defendant Seoul Galbi.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS
CONDITIONS OF PLAINTIFF'S EMPLOYMENT

14. Plaintiff Yun is a former employee of Defendants, ostensibly employed as a waitress – a non-exempt tipped employee – from about February 1, 2016 through April 24, 2017.

15. Throughout her employment, Plaintiff Yun was regularly required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without paying her the proper minimum wage and overtime compensation.

16. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Yun worked twelve (12) hours per work day and five (5) days per week.

17. At some point during her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Yun received a “Notice and Acknowledgement of Pay Rate and Payday,” indicating that her hourly rate will be $8.50 per hour and that her overtime pay rate will be $12.75 per hour.

18. In contrast with the notice, throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was compensated at a rate of sixty dollars ($60) per work day.

DEFENDANTS' FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE "TIP CREDIT" STATUTE

19. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Yun was never given proper notice with respect to the "tip credit" statute.

20. Pursuant to the FLSA, at or before the time of hiring, Defendants were required to provide the information set forth below to Plaintiff in order to claim a tip allowance and pay a reduced hourly wage in conjunction with the actual tips received by Plaintiff:

- a. the amount of cash wage the employer is paying a tipped employee, which must be $2.13 maximum hourly tip credit;
- b. the additional amount claimed by the employer as a tip credit, which cannot exceed the difference between the minimum required cash wage and then minimum wage);
- c. that the tip credit claimed by the employer cannot exceed the amount of tips actually received by the tipped employee;
- d. that all tips received by the tipped employee are to be retained by the employee except for a valid tip pooling arrangement limited to employees who customarily and regularly receive tips; and
- e. that the tip credit will not apply to any tipped employee unless the employee has been informed of these tip credit provisions.

21. As the information set forth in preceding paragraph was not given to Plaintiff Yun, Defendants were not allowed to use the tip credit provisions to reduce the wages due to Plaintiff Yun.

22. Moreover, throughout Plaintiff Yun's employment, Defendants failed to maintain proper timekeeping and compensation records, as required by the FLSA and NJLL; Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff Yun with a wage statement on each payday.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

23. The above-stated pattern and practice – which were willful and intentional – did not only affect Plaintiff Yun, but was Defendants’ widespread, repeated, and consistent policy with respect to all tipped employees of Defendants.

24. As such, Plaintiff Yun brings her FLSA overtime wages and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons who are or were employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three (3) years prior to the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”), as employees of Defendants Seoul Galbi, Hwang, and John Does 1-10 (the “FLSA Class”).

25. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Yun and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and compensation provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols, and plans of willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required overtime compensation of one and one-half (1.5) times their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per work pursuant to the FLSA, willfully taking improper deductions and other improper credits against their wages for which Defendants did not qualify under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.

26. The Plaintiff Yun’s claims stated herein are similar to those of the other employees in the FLSA Class.
